

Are You Paying for Their Financial Crisis?

- Did you know many of the Regents have financial ties to the Wall Street banks that got bailed out? They're profiting while public education suffers!
 - Regents are talking about an 81% tuition increase
 - Tuition has doubled in real $ since 2000
 - More cuts to libraries, closing departments, bigger class sizes, fewer resources
 - Layoffs and pay cuts for workers and faculty
 - Millions in bonuses for UC administrators, who now outnumber faculty!
