

UC REGENT

PAUL

WACHTER

Wachter was appointed to the Regents in 2004 by Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger and serves on the Regents' Committee on Investments, which oversees the UC's investment decisions. At the time of his appointment, Wachter was also the governor's main financial advisor and managed his blind trust. Wachter is CEO of Main Street Advisors and an investment adviser to the entertainment industry. His firm is an elite, private company that provides investment advisory services to a select group of high net worth individuals and companies.

LOST $23 BILLION FOR UC STILL RICH

Check it — Some more info on these blood suckers at TeachTheBudget.org

